7. A stroke does not occur unless it is observed by more than one golfer.
8. Unlike baseball, In golf, you have to play your foul balls.
9. Leaf rule is in affect during the fall season. This is commonly used in certain parts of America during Autumn allowing a golfer to play another ball without penalty when his previous shot is lost and assumed to be covered by leaves, or in a more specific case, pocketed by another player.
